He payed someone to make the Desktop Version and needs to integrate it into a mobile site but I'm not doing that as a test

He paid someone to make a website that works on a computer

He needs someone that could put it into a mobile version

It's actually only one page I could do that in a couple hours I guess making the page work on mobile is the test haha

It's going to be a bigger website he just needs a sample of my code haha well fuck if it'll get me a 30 an hour job fuck yea im staying up lol but i'm trying to see if he is trying to trick me because he sent me all the code for the site but after I am done converting it to mobile I don't get what I will be doing lol
